

PORTRAIT OF A GRADUATE

CALDWELL ACADEMY

Recognizing that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, Caldwell Academy desires to graduate young men and women who understand the need to live one's life under the authority of the canopy of Scripture and who do so with eagerness in joyful submission to God. We expect graduates to be skillful in using the tools of learning: to think critically, listen carefully with discernment and understanding, reason persuasively, and articulate precisely. We intend for our graduates to be exposed to the classical virtues of Truth, Goodness, and Beauty in order to demonstrate those through the spiritual virtues of Faith, Hope, and Love. We endeavor for our graduates to be socially graceful and spiritually gracious, desiring to grow in understanding while fully realizing the limitations and foolishness of the wisdom of this world. We strive to produce graduates who will not conform to the pattern of this world, but are being transformed into the likeness of Jesus Christ: serving sacrificially, having a heart for the lost, and boldly bringing the message of Christ's salvation to a broken world. Ultimately, our desire is that all Caldwell graduates, through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, will do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with their God.
